

Press Release

Contact: Stacey Taylor
Marketing Manager
Children's Home Society of Idaho
P: 208.343.7813 ext. 231
staylor@childrenshomesociety.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Children's Home Society Names New Board Members

Boise, IDAHO – May 18, 2009. The Children's Home Society of Idaho (CHS) is pleased to announce three new members of the Board of Directors: Mark Houston, Gary Morton, and Brian Doster.

Houston is a Vice President & Regional Manager with Bank of the West. Morton spent twenty years in the Treasury Department at Albertsons/Supervalu. Doster is a partner with the Boise-based accounting firm Little-Morris. Each of these individuals brings a wealth of knowledge in the areas of finance, accounting, organizational development, and strategic planning to the organization.

"We are thrilled to have such talented individuals joining our Board of Directors," said W. Stewart Wilder, Executive Director. "Each of these men brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the Board. We are grateful for their willingness to volunteer their time to help us further the mission of the Children's Home Society of Idaho," said Wilder.

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates three programs, the Warm Springs Counseling Center, Warm Springs Training Institute (an APA Accredited training program), and The Bridge. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services, training for mental health professionals, and innovative approaches to improving foster care. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.

###