Children's Home Society Receives Grant Funding

Boise, IDAHO — July 16, 2010. The Children's Home Society has received a $5,000 grant from the Schindel Foundation, as well as a $2,000 grant from the Bernie and Warren McCain Fund in the Idaho Community Foundation. Funding from both grants will help support organization goals.

"Every bit of community support is a huge asset to our organization," said Stacey Taylor, Marketing and Development Manager. "As a private, non-profit corporation we rely on grants and donations to help us continue our mission of providing important behavioral health services to the children and families who need them. We greatly appreciate the McCain Fund and Schindel Foundation's generosity."

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates the Warm Springs Counseling Center and Warm Springs Training Institute. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services and training for mental health professionals. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.
