Children's Home Society Names New Executive Committee

Boise, IDAHO – July 24, 2009. The Children's Home Society of Idaho (CHS) is pleased to announce the 2009-2010 Executive Committee of its Board of Directors, recently elected at their annual board meeting.

President: Patsy Fedrizzi
Vice-President: Laura Shealy
Immediate Past President: Chuck Winder
Treasurer: Gary Morton
Secretary: Stewart Wilder
At-Large: Margo Neef
Parliamentarian: Victoria Loegering

"We are thrilled to have such talented individuals steering our Board of Directors," said Stewart Wilder, Executive Director. "Each person brings a unique perspective to our organization along with a wealth of experience and leadership to our Board. We are grateful for their willingness to volunteer their time to help further the mission of the Children's Home Society of Idaho," said Wilder.

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates three programs, the Warm Springs Counseling Center, Warm Springs Training Institute (an APA Accredited training program), and The Bridge. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services, training for mental health professionals, and innovative approaches to improving foster care. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.
