Children's Home Society Receives Donation from Smoker Event

Boise, IDAHO — July 16, 2010. The Children's Home Society (CHS) has received a $2,015 donation from Brasher's Auto Auction's 2010 Smoker Event. This was the second year of the event, which generated over $30,000 for seven local charities, including CHS. Over 4,700 people attended the Smoker, which featured amateur matches between local car dealers as well as a title fight with professional boxer, Jermain Taylor.

"A big thank you goes to all the area, new and used car dealers who made generous donations at the event. This contribution comes at a time when we need support more than ever before," said Stacey Taylor, Marketing and Development Manager.

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates the Warm Springs Counseling Center and Warm Springs Training Institute. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services and training for mental health professionals. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.
