Children's Home Society Celebrates 14th Annual Gala

Boise, IDAHO — February 1, 2010. The Children's Home Society of Idaho (CHS) will host its 14th Annual Gala on Saturday, February 27, 2010 at the Stueckle Sky Center. The theme is It's a Small World and dress is business attire.

The evening's festivities will include: Dinner, live and silent auctions, and dancing. Emcee, Brad Rowen will entertain guests as he hosts the live KIDS Radio show complete with contests, games, and more. The Gala begins at 6:00 p.m. with a no-host cocktail hour, followed by dinner at 7:00 p.m., auctions, and dancing. Some of the auction items include travel packages to New York City, California Wine Country, Hawaii, and much more.

Once again, this year's presenting sponsor is Moneytree. Proceeds from the event will support programs of the Warm Springs Counseling Center (WSCC) and help fund its subsidy program. "Funds raised at our Gala help children and families access the behavioral health services they need. We are serving more people than ever before due to the struggling economy. With community support of this fun-filled evening, WSCC and its programs ensure that anyone in the community who needs our help, gets it," said Patsy Fedrizzi, President, CHS Board of Directors.

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates three programs, the Warm Springs Counseling Center, Warm Springs Training Institute (an APA Accredited training program), and The Bridge. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services, training for mental health professionals, and innovative approaches to improving foster care. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.
