FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Children's Home Society Celebrates 16th Annual Ice Cream Social

Boise, IDAHO – June 1, 2009. Children's Home Society of Idaho (CHS) will host its 16th Annual Old Fashioned Ice Cream Social. This free, community event is Sunday, June 7, 2009 from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Children's Home Society, 740 Warm Springs Avenue in Boise.

This festive celebration is for the entire family as a way of thanking the community for their support. All activities and treats are free of charge. Festivities include: Antique car displays, bounce house, clown entertainment, balloon animals, face painting, horse-drawn carriage rides, pony rides, and guided tours of the historic Children's Home Society building. Ice cream, lemonade, popcorn, and cotton candy will be served.

At 2:00 p.m., there will be a dessert auction of homemade baked goods and gift baskets made and donated by CHS employees and friends of the organization. Contact Julie Martin, Special Events Manager, at jmartin@childrenshomesociety.com or 343-7813 for more information.

CHS would like to thank this year's presenting sponsors: Bank of the West, Idaho Power, United Dairymen of Idaho, and Meadow Gold.

About the Children's Home Society

The Children's Home Society of Idaho was established in 1908 to oversee the state's orphanage. Today, CHS operates three programs, the Warm Springs Counseling Center, Warm Springs Training Institute, and The Bridge. Through these entities, CHS provides outpatient behavioral health services, training for mental health professionals, and innovative approaches to improving foster care. The mission of CHS is to provide behavioral health programs and related services to children and the families who care for them, regardless of ability to pay.
